President's Message

November 1992

We have recently received information from MCI Telecommunications Corporation stating that MCI and the National Genealogical Society are offering a FREE "how to" brochure for discovering and organizing personal family histories. The booklet is entitled "Branching Out: Tracing Your Family Tree." Highlighting the brochure is a fold-out poster of a family tree to record family members' names and important dates, and is suitable for framing and designed as a keepsake for future generations. It is quite a beautiful poster and well worth your time to order. To receive a free copy of "Branching Out: Tracing Your Family Tree," dial 1-800-950-4TREE. Requests may also be made by sending a 52-cent stamped, self-addressed, 9-1/2" x 4 1/4" envelope to: MCI "Family Tree," c/o Karen Heyison, 1200 South Hayes Street, Arlington, VA 22202.

The brochure, which gives guidelines to persons interested in discovering their roots, complements the upcoming PBS presentation of Celebrating the American Family, underwritten by MCI, which is a documentary hosted by Jill Eikenberry and Michael Tucker of NBC's LA Law, and traces the evolution of the American family. It will air throughout the country the week of December 5, 1992.

Regardless of how accomplished we think we are in our methods of research, all of us can use some pointers along the way. Member Bill Finch has shared a letter he received from a professional genealogist/consultant noting the line of credibility that should be given to our research finds, as follows:

1. First, or most credence is given to eye witness accounts. This occurs when someone sees an event and writes it down at the time. It makes no difference where it is written, Bible, diary, certificate, or local newspaper, as long as it is written at the time of the occurrence.
2. The next level of credibility goes to source records. This consists of census, marriage books, wills, probate records and other public records created at or about the time of an event.
3. The next degree of credibility goes to published works that were research through eyewitness and source records. Due to the erroneous nature of humans, typos and erroneous conclusions find their way into print, thus reducing the accuracy of the published works.
4. The least credibility goes to family traditions that cannot be backed up by two or more of the above.

There are more black holes in history than there are in space. Genealogy prior to 1850 sometimes does not terminate in absolute proof. Many times it ends with a preponderance of the evidence pointing more toward one conclusion than toward other possibilities. However, if we do our detective work well and use all the sources now available, we will eventually solve our problems and obtain absolute proof.

Happy Hunting,

Blanche H. Turlington

1759 Petition addressed to George II by Residents of Orange County, North Carolina

Contributed by ACGS member, Ned Hastings

One of the signers, Henry Hastings is 4th Great-grandfather of Ned Hastings

To the Kings Sacred and most Excellent Majesty

Most Humbly Sheweth

The petition and Address of your Majestys most dutiful and loyal subjects inhabitants of Rowan, Anson and Orange Counties infant settlements on the back frontiers of the Province of North Carolina in America.

That we your Majestys most dutiful and loyal subjects and petitioners most humbly beg leave with the highest sentiments of gratitude upon your Majestys unwearied endeavors to support the truest interests of all your subjects in the mild administration of all your most just and illustrious reign. Permit us most gracious sovereign, at the same time with the warmest sentiments of loyalty in zeal of affection to your majesty to renew the assurances of our most firm steady and unfeigned attqachment to your interests and that we will continue our most vigorous endeavors in exerting ourselves to the utmost in our powers to the support of and defense of your magiestys person your Royal Family and government and the succession of your Kingdoms in your Royal illustrious line to the hazard of our lives and fortunes. Begging permission most gracious sovereign to lay before you our present deplorable situation Exposed to great & eminent dangers of the French enemy & the cruel savage bloodthirsty Indians in their interest, numerous almost as grass-hoppers, set on against us by the French. They having already committed many hostilities by barborously muthering many persons & families in their beds houses & fields & c. And carrying away captive men women & children to be sacrificed in flames to devils in their most horrid way at pleasure or to be their slaves held & brought up in their most devilish manner. Not only in Virginia Maryland & Pennsylvania & c but also some of our friends & neighbors on the frontiers of these our said counties. Beseeching your Majestys generous tender & compassionate regard, we are originally your liege people & mostly originally from the North of Ireland Trained & brought up under Presbyterian Church Government and we & our forefathers have mostly resided sometime in the Northern provinces of Pennsylvania Jersey & New York & c where we were exempted from paying to or supporting any clergy save our own & came here in hopes of enjoying like freedom But find how our counties are constituted and laid out into so many parishes and our Governors instructions being to procure & fix a clergy-man of the Established Church in every parish and a late act of our assembly enjoined all our vestryment to swear to conform to the liturgy & c of the Church of England, to which some of our people elected for vestryment in good conscience cannot conform, Asnd as our said three counties are more than chiefly inhabited by Dissenters where is ten large congregations seated in bodies, as birds of a feather are said to flock together, who amongst other grievances have not attained the Ordinances of the Gospel, our ministers being discouraged to settle here. And yet there is but a very transient number that so much as profess themselves members of the Church of England in our sd three counties. These things considered, with our being lately reduced & brought low in spending a great part of our small estates by transporting ourselves & families & settling in so remote an uncultivated wilderness, many of us near three hundred miles from market, with last Spring & Summers drought or want of rain having brought on a famine of grain hath set our families & cattle in a very suffering condition whence another melancholy scene appeared. Viz: That very few newcomers settle here now as we are envisioned with difficulties, the augmenting our militia & strengthening this province which went on cheerfully these five or six years past is now entirely retared & at a stand. We implore therefore your Royal Majesty to take into your commiserating consideration our remote weak & distressed condition in low circumstances, under a heavy tax & leavy to support the war. And the unforeseen demands & consequents that may from thence occur. To procure a law in your Honorable Houses exempting us from being obligated to pay toward the support of the clergy of the Established Church in this remote wilderness where we are & do settle in large bodies & are desirous of have & support our own ministers & mostly humbly beg a supply of more arms & ammunition & that such as will come & settle on your Majestys part of the back frontiers of this province be freed & exempt from paying quit rents for a number of years The above privileges if graciously granted will animate us & be an only means to defend us from drooping or Repineing under our present trails & discouragements so as under God & in his strength in a Manly Christian like & vigorous manner to wrestle through the same in opposition detestation & abhorance of infidel & Popish detested tyranny. And we upon assurances presume great numbers with their families will be thereby will be encouraged to come from the northern provinces & colonies & settle among & beyond us, so as in short time to augment the number of our militia & strengthen us against the common enemy, as there is much good land lying waste among & beyond us, and we exposee at this juncture of being cut off by these savages unmanly skulking murthering way of war before we are aware or can have any aid from England, our governor or even our nearest neighbors. Joyning our most united fervent prayers to god for your Majesty's being long confined the Happy Ruler of your bulwark of our civil & religious liberty propperties against your Majesty's & our enemies.

In hopes of a gracious accepance & grant of our petition we your Majesty's most dutiful & loyal subjects & petitioners as in duty bound shall and will ever pray.

The barn of Dr. G. C. Lawrence, in DeBastop township, was destroyed by fire one night last week, together with 300 bushels corn, all his planting cotton seed, plow gear, etc. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. No insurance on the property.

Dr. Charles Parkel, the genial proprietor of "Free Breeze" Mansion, a private Sanitarium, and country seat, that the Doctor has built upon Pine Prairie, since coming to Arkansas; was shaking hands with friends on our streets Monday afternoon. The Doctor is a relative newcomer to Arkansas from the state of Iowa, but since casting his lot in Ashley County has become fully identified with our interest, and we feel tlike he is to be a great help to us in many ways. He bought a homestead ? where he has settled, and like a scientific farmer, as well as a physician and surgeon, he is doing some good work in that line that it would pay our farmers to copy. He applies the energies and frugal habits of the northern man to the natural advantages this soil and climate afford a man to make a good living and the consequence is he is getting rich right along while some others are crying hard times.

Exercises of an unusually varied and interesting nature will be held at the Methodist Church on Sunday evening at 7:45 o'clock. The scenic display will be impressive, the two principal characters being represented by Miss Mary White and Miss Etta Goodwin. The following programme will be rendered under the auspices of the Epworth League and the Juvenile Society of the Methodist Church. Opening – recitation – Miss Addie Norman. The Day We Celebrate – Master Moffett Rhodes. Comforting ? – Miss Rassie Wilson. Calhoun, Brooks, Nobles, Crawford

Archibald Calhoun married Mrs. Elizabeth Brooks 23 October 1859, Ashley County. She appears to be widow of John Brooks. Children of John and Elizabeth Brooks were John Brooks, born 1838 in MS; Hugh Brooks, born 1844 in AR; Lorenzo Brooks, born 1850 in AR. In 1870, as widow of Archibald Calhoun, Elizabeth Brooks Calhoun and her nine-year-old son, Archibald Calhoun, were living with Hugh Brooks who had married Sarah Barrenger, dau of John and Christine Barrenger. Elizabeth Brooks Calhoun's son, John Brooks married a McCally in 1861; and there is also a John Brooks who married Elizabeth Ashley in 1863 (both Ashley County marriages). Was this the same person? There was also a Richard L. Brooks who married Anna Nobles in 1870. Would like to correspond with anyone from any of these families. Would like to learn if the Nobles and Crawford families are related to the Calhoun family.
